“You can’t defend. You can’t prevent.
The only thing you can do is detect and respond.” - BS

“If you think technology can solve your security problems, then you don't understand the problems and you don't understand the technology.” - BS “Distrust and caution are the parents of security.” - BF “Fun is like insurance; the older you get the more it costs.” – Kin Hubbard

“The user’s going to pick dancing pigs over security every time.” - BS

“There are two types of encryption: one that will prevent your sister from reading your diary and one that will prevent your government.” - BS

“Our only security is our ability to change.” – John Lilly

“As the United States attorney in Manhattan, I have come to worry about few things as much as the gathering cyber threat.” – Preet Bhahara
